7:50

after wrapping.
Source: WebMD

Water bottle

To gently rinse and keep the area clean.

Hide how to use

1. Rinse under clean, cool running water.
   Source: MedlinePlus
2. Let water run over it; avoid hard scrubbing.
   Source: American Red Cross
3. Remove visible dirt gently if you can.
   Source: MedlinePlus
4. Pat dry with a clean cloth before covering.
   Source: WebMD

Longer-term care

- Keep the area clean and protected as it heals.
- Watch closely for developing signs of infection such as increased redness, warmth, swelling, or pus.
- Consult a healthcare professional if the condition does not improve or if you notice concerning symptoms.

What the photo appears to show

Appears to be: unclear

Redness: none · Bleeding: none

The photo may be unclear, so treat this with extra caution.

Sources

MedlinePlus: Wound care basics

This is guidance only. In a real emergency, call your local emergency number (911 in the US) immediately.

Start Over